

JKAACL organises seminar at Banihal

RISING KASHMIR NEWS

Jammu, Mar 18: A two-day seminar organized to promote Kashmiri Language and Culture commenced on Monday here at Government Degree College, Banihal.

Asper an official, the event was organised by the Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in collaboration with Jammu and Kashmir Academy of Art, Culture and Languages (J&KAACL). The final session was presided by the Secretary Culture J&KAACL Dr. Aziz Haffani.

In his address Dr. Aziz Haffani underlined the importance of culture and heritage adding that it is the duty of the young generation to preserve it. He congratulated administration of Banihal College for organizing a successful seminar on a vital topic.

He further informed that during the day long discussion various problem of Kashmiri language have been highlighted and their resolutions were also suggested by the speakers. He stressed on introduction of Kashmiri language in schools and colleges of Chenab Valley. He appealed the young generation to speak mother tongue in their day to day affairs so that the language could flourish. He offered his full support to the colleges of district for organizing literary events.

Earlier, the inaugural session of the Seminar was presided over by the Principal of host college Mushtaq Ahmed Sohail, while representative of Sahitya Akademi, Ajay Sharma, Manshoor Banihali, Prof. Shad Ramzan, Shabir Ahmed Shabir, Zarif Ahmed Zarif, Zahir Banihali, Gehar Banihali, Dildagar Banihali, Shaker Shafi, AK Shams, Mohidin Ajiz and various other prominent poets and linguists from Kashmir valley were also present, the official added.

J&KAACL organises seminar at Banihal

Early Times Report

RAMBAN, Mar 18: A two-day seminar organized to promote Kashmiri Language and Culture commenced today here at Government Degree College, Banihal. The event was organised by the Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in collaboration with Jammu and Kashmir Academy of Art, Culture and Languages (J&KAACL). The final session was presided by the Secretary Culture J&KAACL Dr. Aziz Hajjari.

In his address Dr. Aziz Hajjari underlined the importance of culture and heritage adding that it is the duty of the young generation to preserve it. He congratulated administration of Banihal College for organizing a successful seminar on a vital topic.

He further informed that during the day long discussion various problem of Kashmiri language have been highlighted and their resolutions were also suggested by the speakers. He stressed on introduction of Kashmiri language in schools and colleges of Chenab Valley. He appealed the young generation to speak mother tongue in their day to day affairs so that the language could flourish. He offered his full support to the colleges of district for organizing literary events.

Earlier, the inaugural session of the Seminar was presided over by the Principal of host college Mushtaq Ahmed Sohail, while representative of Sahitya Akademi, Ajay Sharma, Manshoor Banihali, Prof. Shad Ramzan, Shabir Ahmed Shabir, Zarif Ahmed Zarif, Zahir Banihali, Gohar Banihali, Dildagar Banihali, Shaker Shafi, AK Shams, Mohidin Ajiz and various other prominent poets and linguists from Kashmir valley were also present.

Sahitya Akademi, Cultural Academy organize seminar

Early Times Report

RAMBAN, Mar 18: With an aim to promote Kashmiri Language and Culture in state a two-day long seminar was commenced at Government Degree College, Banihal being organized by the Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in collaboration with Jammu and Kashmir Academy of Art, Culture and Languages (JKAACL). The programme was presided by the secretary JKAACL Dr. Aziz Hajjani.

On the first day of Seminar inaugural session was presided over by the principal of host college Mushtaq Ahmed Sohail, representative of Sahitya Akademi, Ajay Sharma, Manshoor Banihali, Prof

Shad Ramzan, Shabir Ahmed Shabir, Zarif Ahmed Zarif, Zahir Banihali, Gohar Banihali, Dulfagar Banihali, Shaker Shafi, AK Shams, Mohidin Ajiz and various other prominent poets and linguists from Kashmir valley participated in the seminar.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr Aziz Hajjani said that it is the duty of the young generation to preserve their culture and identity. We should produce such a strong talent which would be enhancing the use of Kashmiri language in state administration setup, he said. He congratulated administration of Banihal College for organizing a successful seminar on a vital topic.

J&KAACL organises seminar at Banihal

■ TNN REPORT

RAMBAN : A two-day seminar, organized to promote Kashmiri Language and Culture, commenced today here at Government Degree College, Banihal.

The event was organised by the Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in collaboration with Jammu and Kashmir Academy of Art, Culture and Languages (J&KAACL). The final session was presided by the Secretary Culture J&KAACL Dr. Aziz Hajjani.

In his address, Dr. Aziz Hajjani underlined the importance of culture and heritage adding that it is the duty of the young generation to preserve it. He congratulated administration of Banihal College for organizing a successful seminar on a vital topic.

He further informed that during the day long discussion various problem of Kashmiri language have been highlighted and their resolutions were also suggested by the speakers. He stressed on introduction of Kashmiri language in schools and colleges of Chenab Valley. He appealed the young generation to speak mother tongue in their day to day affairs so that the language could flourish. He offered his full support to the colleges of district for organizing literary events.

Earlier, the inaugural session of the seminar was presided over by the Principal of host college Mushtaq Ahmed Sohil, while representative of Sahitya Akademi, Ajay Sharma, Manshoor Banihali, Prof. Shad Ramzan, Shabir Ahmed Shabir, Zarif Ahmed Zarif, Zahir Banihali, Gohar Banihali, Dulfagar Banihali, Shaker Shafi, AK Shams, Mohidin Ajiz and various other prominent poets and linguists from Kashmir valley were also present.

Sahitya Akademi, State Cultural Academy organise seminar

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

RAMBAN: With an aim to promote Kashmiri Language and Culture in State two-day seminar was commenced at Government Degree College, Banihal being organised by the Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in collaboration with State Culture Academy which was presided by the secretary State Culture Academy Dr. Aziz Hajjani.

On the first day of Seminar inaugural session was presided over by the principal of host college Mushtaq Ahmed Sohil, representative of Sahitya Akademi, Ajay Sharma, Manshoor Banihali, Prof. Shad Ramzan, Shabir Ahmed Shabir, Zarif Ahmed Zarif, Zahir Banihali, Gohar Banihali, Dillagar Banihali, Shaker Shafi, AK Shams, Mohidin Ajiz and various other prominent poets and linguists from Kashmir valley were participated in the Seminar.

Dignitaries during the seminar at Banihal.

In his address Dr. Aziz Hajjani said that it is the duty of the young generation to preserve their cultural and identity. He congratulated administration of Banihal College for organizing a successful seminar on a vital topic.

He further informed that during the day long discussion various problem of Kashmiri language have been highlighted and their resolutions were also suggested by the speakers. He stressed to introduce Kashmiri language in schools and colleges of Chenab region. He appealed the young generation to speak their mother tongue in their day to day affairs so that the language could flourish. He offered his full support to the colleges of district for organizing literary events.

OFFICE OF THE SUB DISTRICT