

SA.16/14/

2 December 2019

PRESS RELEASE

Kashmiri Tamil Translation Workshop inaugurated at Delhi

2/12/2019, Delhi: Three Days workshop on translation of selected Tamil short stories into Kashmiri was inaugurated today here at the conference Hall of Sahitya Akademi New Delhi. The workshop was inaugurated by Dr. Aziz Hajini, noted Kashmiri writer and Convener Northern Regional Board/Kashmiri of Sahitya Akademi. Eminent Tamil writer Dr. Sirpi Balasubramaniam is participating in the workshop as a Resource Person. Outstanding writers and translators - Prof. Farooq Fayaz, Prof Shiekh Mohammed Aijaz, Sri Mushtaq Ahmed Mushtaq, Dr Amin Fayazi, Dr. G.S. Raina and Ms. Anjali Kaul are also participating in the workshop. While inaugurating the workshop Dr Hajini said that intergration of various languages and literature written therein is one among the main functions of Sahitya Akademi. "To bring literary sensibilities of two distant languages of India spoken in extreme North and extreme Southern parts of the country is the main motive of this workshop", said Hajini on this occasion.

While welcoming the experts, translators and others who were present on this occasion, Dr. S. Rajmohan, Deputy Secretary (Admn.), Sahitya Akademi said that Sahitya Akademi stated that this is the first translation workshop to be organised under Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat scheme.

The workshop will continue for three days and the Tamil short stories translated into Kashmiri during the workshop shall be published in a book form. The proceedings of the inaugural session were conducted by Sri Anupam Tiwari, who also proposed the Vote of Thanks at the end of the inaugural session.

Sd/-
(K. Sreenivasarao)

Sahitya Akademi
New Delhi

अनुवाद कार्यशाला
TRANSLATION WORKSHOP

